About This Game

Savour a taste of the mysterious and ancient world of Elsewhere in our demo.

Anyone who dares to enter the door of Elsewhere, hero or fiend alike, faces the opportunity to earn their greatest desire but at the cost of perilous adventure against ferocious creatures and otherworldly monsters. Along your journey you will discover powerful amulets, potions and deadly weapons, to use as you so wish.

The full game of Rumours From Elsewhere will feature 10 levels and 10 playable characters. This demo allows you to explore just the first of these levels - the blistering desert temple ruin with its warren of dangerous tunnels - playing only as the first playable character - the blackguard Highwayman seeking the thrill of one final adventure.

The weapon and trinket crafting system is not available in this demo. Whilst the full game of Rumours From Elsewhere can be played with a friend on local co-op, this demo is single-player only.
