S.R.M UNIVERSITY
SCHOOL OF ARCHITECTURE & INTERIOR DESIGN

CURRICULUM FOR BACHELOR OF ARCHITECTURE (B.Arch) - 2007

Goal and Objectives

- The B.Arch. Degree program (professional, under-graduate level) aims at producing professionals who will assume major leadership role in shaping the built environment, the quality of which is the major determinant of the quality of life experienced by the people. The main goal is to inculcate the ability to conceive, formulate and design according to various requirements & needs.
- The duration is 5 years and it is a two-level program, spread over ten semesters: Formative level (semesters 1-6) and Consolidation level (semesters 7-10), each level having specific objectives.
- Objectives at the Formative level (semesters 1-6) are to develop oral, written, visual, and graphic presentation skills and technical knowledge necessary for perception and expression of ideas in architectural design and their construction methods.
- Whereas, objectives at the Consolidation level (semesters 7-10) is to inculcate an in-depth perception of architecture as an activity in time and space, and develop ability to design functions with an awareness of contextual issues involved in the various facets of architecture.

Scheme of Studies (Curriculum)

Objective at first year (semesters 1-2) is to introduce basics of visual communication and develop skills and techniques of sketching, drafting, modeling and presentation .An insight into the historical perspective of architecture is also intended.
